

SimonFest
California Institute of Technology
March 27 – 31, 2006

A New Approach to Spectral Gap Problems

JEAN BOURGAIN
Institute for Advanced Study, Princeton

Abstract. Using combinatorial techniques such as the sum-product phenomenon in finite fields, we exhibit new classes of expanders in  $SL^2(p)$  and  $SU(2)$ . Various applications are given, in particular, to the quaquaversal tiling problem.